Dress Code

Scope

The Club acknowledges the more social intent of the Men's City Leagues, Men's Under 18 teams (not Division 1), Women's City League teams (not Division 1) and Women's Under 18. All players and team officials will be expected to abide by the Dress Code outlined herein.

Coaches

Fixtures and Official Club Events

Coaches have been supplied with a Club polo shirt. The Coach must wear the Club polo shirt to, at and from all fixtures and as advised, to official Club events. If weather conditions dictate the wearing of warmer outer wear, then the Club jacket may be worn. The Club's hoodie or a plain black jacket (no writing or pictures) may be worn. The Club jacket and hoodie are available for purchase through the Souths Shop.

Coaches may wear long black pants, black socks and black shoes to, at and from all fixtures and as advised, to official Club events. See the standard for pants, socks and shoes below.

In extreme weather conditions, the Manager may wear black dress/walk shorts and joggers. See the standards for dress/walk shorts below. Extreme weather is if the temperature is 30° or above.

Training Sessions:

The Club has a standard training uniform (shirt and shorts). These can be purchased through the Souths Shop.

Managers

Fixtures and Official Club events:

It is preferred that Managers wear the Club polo shirt to, at and from all fixtures. These are available for purchase at the Souths Shop at a subsidised cost – Managers only. If weather conditions dictate the wearing of warmer outer wear, then the Club jacket, Club's hoodie or a plain black jacket (no writing or pictures) may be worn. The Club jacket and hoodie are available for purchase through the Souths Shop.

Managers may elect to wear long black pants, black socks and black shoes to, at and from all fixtures (though not compulsory) and as advised/requested, to official Club events. See the standard for pants, socks and shoes below.

In extreme weather conditions, the Manager may wear black dress/walk shorts and joggers. See the standards for dress/walk shorts below. Extreme weather is if the temperature is 30° or above.

Training Sessions:

Managers may wear the Club polo and club jacket at training sessions however this is not compulsory.

Players

Fixtures and Official Club Events:

The Club playing jersey will be provided to by the Team Manager on a weekly basis. The Club playing jersey remains the property of Souths United Football Club at the end of the season.

The Club playing jersey is to be tucked into the Club playing shorts for the duration of the fixture. Players are required to purchase the Club's playing shorts and playing socks. These are available for purchase through the Souths Shop.

Shin pads MUST be worn during the entirety of each match.

The following is an excerpt from Law 4 – The Players' Equipment from the FIFA Laws of the Game 2013 Edition:

Safety

A player must not use equipment or wear anything that is dangerous to himself or another player (including any kind of jewellery).

Basic Equipment

The basic equipment of a player comprises the following separate items:

- A jersey or shirt with short sleeves – if undergarments are worn, the colour of the sleeve must be the same main colour as the sleeve of the jersey or shirt [will need to be white]
- Shorts – if undershorts or tights are worn, they must be the same main colour as the shorts [will need to be black]
- Stockings (socks) – if tape or similar material is applied externally it must be the same colour as that part of the stocking (sock) it is applied to [will need to be black] See Note below.
- Shinguards
- Footwear.

Interpretations of Law 4 –

Jewellery

All items of jewellery (necklaces, rings, bracelets, earrings, leather bands, rubber bands etc) are strictly forbidden and must be removed. Using tape to cover jewellery is not acceptable.

Note: The Souths Shop (and canteen) sell black tape and 2 widths of black Velcro Shin Guard Holders.

Training Sessions:

The Club's training shirt is the preferred uniform to be worn to training sessions. It can be purchased through the Souths Shop. Training shorts and socks are also available for purchase through the Souths Shop but are not compulsory. The preferred colour for training shorts and socks is black. If weather conditions dictate the wearing of warmer outer wear, then either the Club jacket or a plain black jacket (no writing or pictures) or Club Hoodie may be worn. The Club jacket and Hoodie are available for purchase through the Souths Shop.

Shin pads MUST be worn at every outdoor training session.
