CRISTIANO RONALDO – CAREER BOOT DISPLAY

What is it that could compel the world's richest football club to spend an unparalleled £80 million on a single player?

In 2009, Manchester United forward and Portugal captain Cristiano Ronaldo was transferred to Spanish giants Real Madrid for a record fee, only months after being named both the 2008 Ballon d'Or recipient and FIFA World Player of the Year. Since then, the record fee has seemed comparatively insignificant, with Ronaldo averaging more than a goal per game for Real Madrid. His value to Real Madrid is probably best typified by his output in the 2011-2012 Primera Division season, scoring an unprecedented seven hat-tricks. No wonder Cristiano Ronaldo is football's most expensive man.

This limited edition pays tribute to one of the world game's most popular and devastating players. The limited edition is personally signed by the Portugal Captain, Manchester United and Real Madrid superstar Cristiano Ronaldo and is accompanied by a certificate of authenticity by the UEFA Licensee.
